GIANT AMONG COACHES

HEAD COACH

JIM LEE HOWELL

Arkansas U.; Giants

7th YEAR

Lonoke, Ark.; Englewood, N. J.

COACH: Now in his final season as head coach, Jim Lee can look back with pride on one of the finest records in Giants' history. Since taking over the reins in 1954, he has guided the club to three eastern division titles (1956-58-59) and one world championship (1956). During that time, New York has compiled an overall mark of 47 wins, 23 losses and two ties for a winning percentage of .671. Jim Lee is the only coach in the east to have beaten Paul Brown of Cleveland for divisional honors—and he's done it three out of the last four years! The success of Howell's coaching system is reflected in the fact that two of his former assistants, Vin Lombardi and Tom Landry, are now head coaches in their own right, Lombardi at Green Bay and Landry at Dallas. Jim Lee was Giant end coach under Steve Owen from 1949-53, taking over the head job when Owen left after the '53 season. He also did coaching hitches in the collegiate ranks—as an assistant at Arkansas in 1936, end coach at Manhattan College in 1940 and head coach at Wagner College in 1949.

PRO: Joined the Giants in 1937 among a brilliant crop of rookies who won the world championship in 1938 and eastern titles in 1939 and 1941. Also played on divisional winners of 1946. Was regular end for a total of nine years, 1937-42, and 1946-48, with career interrupted by a war-time hitch in the Marines.

SCHOOL: Although not a high school player, Howell won a position with the Arkansas varsity under coach Fred Thomsen. Team was one of the pioneer "aerial circus" outfits and was called the "passingest team in the land." Jim Lee also captained the Arkansas basketball team, leading it to the Olympic finals at Madison Square Garden in 1936.

PERSONAL: Born September 27, 1914, in Lonoke, Ark. Member of the State Legislature. Served as a Marine company commander in Pacific during World War II. Raises rice and beef cattle on Lonoke farm but sold more extensive land holdings when he was named head coach in 1954. Lives in Englewood, N. J., during off-season with wife Sue and their three children. Will step down as head coach after the 1960 season to become director of personnel for the New York club.

GIANTS' ASSISTANT COACHES

OFFENSE

AL SHERMAN

Brooklyn College

7th YEAR

Hartsdale, N. Y.

COACH: Sherman rejoined the Giants' coaching staff in 1959 after an absence of six years. He replaced Vince Lombardi as offensive aide to Jim Lee Howell. Under Sherman, the Giant attack finished first in team passing in the NFL, second in scoring and eighth in rushing en route to winning the eastern division championship in 1959. Originally, Al was offensive aide to Steve Owen from 1949 to 1953, but moved on to the Canadian loop when the current regime, under Howell, took over in 1954. Sherman was head coach at Winnipeg from 1954-56, making the Canadian playoffs three straight years. He returned to the NFL as a personnel scout for the Giants in 1957, and served in that capacity until being promoted to his present position last year. One of Al's first jobs with the Giants as assistant to Owen back in 1949 was the conversion of a rookie named Charlie Conerly from a single wing tailback to a T formation quarterback. Sherman coached at St. Joseph's Prep, Philadelphia, 1946-47, and was part-time backfield coach at Gettysburg College in 1953. In 1948, as player-coach, he led the Paterson Panthers to the American Association title.

PRO: Was drafted by the Philadelphia Eagles in 1943 and stayed with Greasy Neale's club for five years, until 1947. Neale once described Sherman as having one of the "sharpest football minds in the business."

SCHOOL: Attended Boys' High in New York City 1935-38 and then played four years of football under Lou Oshins at Brooklyn College. In 1948, his junior year, Al switched to the role of a T formation quarterback and was so impressive that the Eagles immediately grabbed him to run the T for them.

PERSONAL: Born February 10, 1923. He and wife Joan have three children Randy, Lori and Robin. In off-season (which Al says there isn't much of), he couples football with sales work for Cellu-Craft Products.

PRO: Was drafted No. 17 by the Los Angeles Rams in 1953 and traded to the Giants the following year. Has been a mainstay of the great New York defensive units ever since.
